EVIDENCE B

Daisy Buchanan: Hello?

Nick Carraway: Daisy, it's Nick.

Daisy Buchanan: Oh hello, Nick.

Nick Carraway: Would you like to join me for some tea this afternoon?

Daisy Buchanan: Oh yes, I would love to!

Nick Carraway: Don't bring Tom.

Daisy Buchanan: What?

Nick Carraway: Don't bring Tom.

Daisy Buchanan: Who is Tom?

Nick Carraway: Tom. Your husband.

Daisy Buchanan: Are you in love with me or something?

Nick Carraway: Just come over. You'll know.

Daisy Buchanan: I will be there.

EVIDENCE B

June 14/1922

The day we agreed upon - Today - was pouring rain. At eleven o'clock a man in a raincoat dragging a lawn-mower tapped at my front door and said that Mr. Gatsby had sent him over to cut my grass.

EVIDENCE B

The flowers were unnecessary. At two o'clock a green -haired arrived from Gatsby's, with innumerable receptacles to contain it. An hour before the front door opened nervously and Gatsby in a white suit, silver shirt and gold coloured tie hurried in. He was pale and there were dark signs of sleeplessness beneath his eyes. Under the dripping lace table there a large open car was coming up the drive. Daisy's hair, tipped sideways beneath a three-caned

Dear Mr. Nickelberg,

I've heard many wonderful things about your newspaper and I would be more than honored to be on your front cover. I am sure you've heard of my extravagant parties that attract nearly everyone who is anyone, and I think it's time they get even more recognition especially from the number one newspaper in the USA. Not only will you be able to put exclusive pictures on your front cover, but also exclusive pictures of all things Gatsby. My house and cars, for example, which I bought for 3.5 million dollars are picture worthy. They would catch anyone's eyes as they walked past a newspaper stand. If that isn't enough persuasion, then I have an offer. An offer of 1,300 dollars to put my life and me on the cover of your newspaper. Contact this number 201-437-2986 when you want to come by and take pictures.

Yours truly,

Dear Jay Gatsby,

It has now been a couple of months since you have left for the war. Though it is awful, having to be away from you, many officers have requested me for dinner and I even received some marriage proposals. You need not to worry though because I saw how you looked at me in front of the Plaza Hotel the last day we met. Your eyes said, "I would do anything for you," and I will never forget it. Most importantly I will never forget you. I pray that this letter reaches you.

Yours truly,

Daisy Fay

July 27, 1922

Dear Jay,

Last night was one of the most amazing nights of my life, you still haven't lost that look in your eyes that you had five years ago. It means so much to me that you are here for me and that you would do anything for me because sometimes I feel Tom won't. I have missed you Gatsby... You and your party instilled so much hope in me that I have missed.

I hope to see you soon,

Daisy Buchanan

Description: Nearby neighbor heard a loud argument, and as she approached the situation closer, she heard a man shouting, "Don't ever leave me you're all I've ever had Myrtle", followed by the sound of objects being thrown around. Moments later Phillips heard, "You may fool me, but you can't fool God!". Phillips also explained she heard both hateful and loving comments.

- "You're my only love"
- "Why are you playing these games with my heart and mind"
- "You aren't going anywhere!"
- "I will do anything to make you happy"
- "I'll love you no matter what you do"
- "Beat me! Throw me down and beat me, you little coward!"
